To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of the soon-to-be-legendary actor Curt Nielsen.

Bottom line: anyone who passes on working with this fine actor and individual is passing up an opportunity of a lifetime.

My name is Monroe Mann. I am the author of the best-selling book, The Theatrical Juggernaut – The Psyche of the Star, the founder of Unstoppable Artists Business School, a SAG actor, the producer/screenwriter of the upcoming feature, In the Wake (with music by Avril Lavigne and Sum41), and also the director/producer/writer of the SAG comedic short film, Origami Deathmatch, in which Curt played a leading role.

AS AN ACTOR: I've known Curt for over 5 years. We met years ago when we played opposite each other in the reading of the play, The Price of Honor. Since then, I've known him to be one of NY's finest. He was indeed my first choice for the role of the 'Veteran/Folded Felon', and I feel privileged to have been able to work with him again. He added immeasurably to the film's overall production value, and when you see his performance in it, you'll know what I mean.

AS A PROFESSIONAL: Curt is the tops. He arrives early, stays late, never complains, is tirelessly helpful, takes perfect direction, and is a dream to work with. There are very few actors who can not only act, but are also courteous, understanding, polite, professional, and helpful in making the director/producer's job easier. I count Curt in this rare group.

I am sure I speak for most of Hollywood and Broadway when I say that I look forward to working with Curt again, and that it would be a pleasure to do so. If you are considering working with Curt in any capacity in this business... stop considering, and just work with him already! You'll be glad you did. That's an understatement.

ROMP ON!
Sincerely,

Monroe Mann
